THE ST. JOHNS HERALD.

O. E. OVERSON,
EDITOR AND MANAGER.

EDITORIAL.

SALUTATORY.

IN assuming the responsible position as Editor and Manager of THE HERALD I sincerely beg the support of all the people of Apache county.

We do not for an instant hesitate to say that we are assured the people have been satisfied with Mr. Wait's management of this sheet; and we hope to be able to satisfy the readers of THE HERALD as well as he has done.

This change will not affect either the religion or the politics of the paper. We will endeavor to treat every-body right and expect the same in return.

While under our supervision we will endeavor to publish the news of the country as near as it is in our power to do so.

This being the only paper published in the county, will contain all legal notices, summons, supervisor proceedings, etc. etc.

It shall have our earnest endeavors to make it a paper that should be in the hands of every resident of the county; so they may keep posted on the proceedings of the same. It will not only be confined to the county alone but the Territory and the whole world. All items of interest to the people will be taken notice of and published as much as time and space will permit.

Humbly asking you all to uphold us by your liberal patronage to "THE ST. JOHNS HERALD"

I remain Yours to serve the public.

O. E. OVERSON.

LAST Wednesday (27th) was just one year from the day our beloved and highly esteemed fellow-townsmen, Andrew A. Gibbons and Frank Lesueur were killed by heartless wretches about 30 miles east of town. At the time they met their death these noble young heroes were in pursuit of outlaws, who were stealing cattle and the suspicions were that they intended holding up some of the stores here, so Gus and Frank met their death trying to preserve law in our country.

To commemorate the awful tragedy or wassacre, Wm. H. Gibbons his son W. O. and James W. Lesueur left here Tuesday last taking tablets of stone having on them an account of the death of those martyrs for the sake of peace. These persons raised strong rock monuments about 5 ft. high, where each of the young men fell placing the stone inscriptions on the top of each monument. Long shall the citizens of this country remember the bravery with which these young martyrs met their death trying to establish law and order.

Legislature Doings.

A message from the governor announced that he had approved and signed the following bills: H. B. 62, providing for the maintenance, organization and discipline of a territorial militia.

H. B. 190, Indictments in cases of larceny of live stock, read twice; on motion read three times and put on final passage and passed. Ayes 21; nays 1; absent 2.

A message from the governor announced that he had approved and signed H. B. No. 121, providing for an irrigation commission in counties of the first class have an assessed valuation of over $8,000,000.

Judge Sterry in behalf of the Santa Fe Pacific was invited to address the council relative to the assessment of railroad lands. The minimum had been placed at 75c instead of 20c as formerly. He thought the land not worth 5c per acre. His company would refuse to pay the tax on land also what is now paid voluntarily on the railroad.

message from the governor asks that Prof. Blake of the university be allowed $300 for assistance rendered. There was also a list of appointments for confirmation. Riordan offered a bill to repeal Sec. 44, entitle revenues, a portion of the code. It refers to 75c per acre as the minimum price of assessment. In compliance with Judge Sterry's request the bills had two readings and further suspension was granted. Andrew pleaded for the poor railroad as he thought 75c valuation per acre would be taking property without due process of law. The bill had three readings. Perkins opposed the bill. The bill did not pass. 3 ayes, 7 noes, 2 absents.

Perkins introduced a bill regulating fees in counties of the 3th, 4th, 5th and 6th class. It had two readings. The bill allows clerks of the district court $250 in addition to all fees and sheriffs not less than $300 to sheriffs who act as assessors. The bill had third reading and passed, 10 ayes, 2 absents.

Mr. Kimball offered a memorial to congress asking that the military force on the San Carlos reservation be not withdrawn or diminished. The memorial was unanimously adopted.

H. B. 194, relating to appropriation of water, construction of dams and maintaining reservoirs etc. Passed.

Bill to recover money when illegal warrants are drawn was introduced, and after three readings passed unanimously. Ives introduced a bill allowing Yuma county to refund certain bonds. Had three readings and passed.

H. B. No 112, to appropriate $5,000 to the O'Neill monument, passed.

A message from the governor announced that he had approved and signed H. B. No 107, concerning the insurance of licenses to saloons within one mile of incorporated cities and towns.

H. B. 176, to prevent the extinction of antelope.

C. B. No 124, providing that district attorneys shall act as attorneys for the several school districts of their counties. Passed.

Ten hours was established as a days work in any laundry and sprinkling by spouting water from the mouth was prohibited. Passed.

Bill making minimum fine for carrying concealed weapons $5 passed.

DEATH OF HARRISON.

Last Rites Over the Body.

Remains Interred in Family
Burial Lot at Indianapolis Sunday Afternoon.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18.—In the center of a hollow square, composed of fully 15,000 of his fellow-citizens, the remains of Benjamin Harrison were Sunday afternoon interred in the family lot in Crown Hill Cemetery, after impressive services, conducted by Doctor Hines of this city and Doctor Nicolls of St. Louis, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Close by the grave were the members of his family, President McKinley and other visitors of distinction and the more intimate friends of Harrison. Back a distance of fifty yards behind ropes, guarded zealously by a large force of police, stood with uncovered heads the great multitude who knew him not so well as did they who stood beside the freshly upturned earth—but who honored him and admired him fully as much.

The services at the church and grave were simple in the extreme, all in most excellent taste. Like the proceedings Saturday, there was an utter absence of friction in everything that was done. All was well ordered and well performed.

At the Harrison home, before the remains were taken to the First Presbyterian Church, where the full services was held, there were brief exercises for the members of the family and more immediate friends of General Harrison. Possibly 150 people were present. Mrs. Harrison did not appear, but remained in her room until it was time to leave for the church.

President McKinley went to the grave with Mrs. Durbin and stood with her during the brief service. When the prayer was offered the President was seemingly deep in thought, and remained so with bowed head after the final word had been said. He stood with bared head immediately behind the stone monument of the Harrison family, and once, when the weariness of the day had touched him, he leaned against it for a moment.

Instead of following the usual practice, which consists of dropping of a few grains of dust on the coffin, three white carnations were placed upon the lid.—REPUBLICAN.
